Shields, of the Wabash; A. B. Ritchie, of the Vandalia; J. T. Fotey, of the Pennsylvania; J. C. Brambail, of the Burlington route; L. D. Coeper, of the Washington, April 21.—Eleven innings were required by the Senators to win to-day's game. As on yesterday, although the visitors made more hits, the Senators of the West, and the West of the Reck Island; Billy Brill, won by bunching and because of errors by Missouri Pacific; C.W. Green, of the Big R H E Four; A. C. Goodrich, of the B. and O.: Webster, of the Star Union line, and r.

C. Lyon, of the Missouri Pacific.

Each one of the men has obligated filmself to secure ten men to join the compuny in case actual hostflities are declared between the United States and Spain. The of the first section the military band president was notified last night. General played "The Girl I Left Rehind Me." Lyon, with such a company, can be counted on to do something great for his country.

Troops Turned Back at Guthrle and Sent to Tennessee.

Yesterday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock three train loads of the regular army passed through the city on route to New Orleans. They were from Fort Locoaches in all besides a train following which had on board the commissary wagons and the mules and horses necessary to the command. Only one train, the first, stopped here and that for only a few

Engine number 193 conveyed the first Company A was under the command of Captain Frederick; company B, by Captain Hardin, and company D, by Captain Kendrick. A telegram was received here at 7 o'clock stating that the adjutant ganeral in Coforado had telegraphed the Santa Fe officials at Topeka asking them to intersect the officers and soldiers and have them turn back and go to Chattanooga, Tenn., instead of New Orleans where they had started for. They arrived in Guthrie at 2 o'clock when the order reached Colonel Benham. He ordered atl of the men and horses to be fed and at Il

There was between 5,000 and 6,000 people who were at the depot to see the soldiers go through. There was hollowing which was deafening. Women cried and men yelled. The soldiers took the matter very philosophically, if their faces indicated anything. They were smiling and waving flags and seemed to enjoy their reception The last three companies to go through were F, which was under the command of Captain Booth, and companies I and H. The soldiers, although here only a few minutes were glad they were to see actual service, and each one predicted a speedy
